Fancy Striped Taffetas $1.00 Yard.

These new arrivals well illustrate the progressive thought which Cheney Bros. inject into their famous product. Richer in colorings, more pleasing in designs than any we have yet shown at $1.00 yard. Cheney Bros' printed Foulards in slightly patterns.

This is the time of year when WASH SILKS begin to spurt. Wash Silks, as shown here to-day, differ materially from those shown in former years—prettier—better—more diverse. They start at 29c yard and don't go beyond 50c. We suggest these for Ladies' Waists and Children's Dresses in particular, although they are suited for many other purposes. For instance, our Men's Furnishing Department shows a notable line of Summer Shirts with plain or plaited WASH SILK FRONTS.

WHITE WASH SILKS for confirmation outfits, 35c to 98c yard.

BEST PLAIN TAFFETA SILKS 85c yard; not much cheaper than any other store's best, but we think our color range is more complete.

SENECHAL—The new Black Silk; body of Gros de Louvre, finish of Peau de Soie. The best examples are $1.50 and $1.75 yard.

A Silk stock here to which this entire page would not do justice, and it would require another page to tell about the many summer fabrics with which Silks have been blended. Here are some: Silk Dimities, Silk Marseilles, Silk Organdies, Silk Gingham, etc. All of these are to be found in the great Wash Goods Section, which does not contain a full pattern of goods carried from last season.

A SEEMINGLY STRANGE fact about Black Crepons is this: The special line at $3.90 outsells all others. Come in and see the newer patterns in this lustrous line of Silk and Wool Crepons, and you will readily understand why it is so very popular.

Ribbons.

The confidence born of great quantity and greater diversity exists here. Try us for match widths in black, white or any color—for one piece or ten pieces of a kind—for widest or narrowest—for plainest or fanciest. Try us for any Ribbon want! Buying in large quantities makes selling at lowest prices easy.

Wrong, Wrong---

Wrong are the petticoats made without YOKE BANDS. One noted line in particular which we control in Wheeling is made of plain and fancy Mercerized Italian Satin, and so slightly and saleable are these that it's difficult to keep up the assortment. They have deep yoke bands, are plentifully be-ruffled and have that correct outward swing which captivates critical buyers. In the new Cloak Room, along with other choice Ready-to-Wear Articles.

Alex. McGlumphy Dead. Information has reached Wheeling of the death of Alexander McGlumphy of the home of his son, I. D. McGlumphy, near Odin, W. Va. Mr. McGlumphy was in the seventy-second year of his age, and was formerly a resident of Dallas, Marshall county. His many friends in the Pan Handle will regret to hear of his demise.

In the Circuit Court. Yesterday in the circuit court, in the case of A. A. Franzheim, administrator of Adaline Clemens, deceased, vs. Jennie Anderson et al., the cause was dismissed on motion of the complainant. Costs ordered paid by plaintiff.

In the case of Annie R. Sheldon vs. Isaac Sheldon it was ordered that defendant pay plaintiff $25 a month and $5 to plaintiff's attorney.

State Board of Pharmacy. The annual meeting of the West Virginia state board of pharmacy was held on the 6th and 7th of April at Parkersburg. Three of the four members of the board are graduates of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy. The board organized by electing the following officers: President, H. L. Boggs, Ph. G., Charleston; vice president, George H. Ebeling, Ph. G., Wheeling; secretary and treasurer, W. S. Hamilton, Ph. G., Fairmont. After the transaction of considerable routine business the board adopted a new set of questions and included therein a practical examination feature and identification of specimens. This is an innovation with the present board, the former examinations being only written. It is learned the intention is to grant certificates only to those who prove themselves both practically and theoretically proficient, and to use every effort to raise the standard of pharmacy to a high point of excellence.

SOCIETY.

Mr. Charles Zulauf, who will make his future home in Pittsburgh, was host to a number of his friends last night, at an elaborate luncheon served at Edward Hofreuter's cafe, Eighth ward, and Mr. Zulauf's friends took the occasion to express their regrets at his departure and wish for him the success he will undoubtedly reap in a larger field. Music played a prominent part in the banquet, those participating being Prof. H. M. Shockey, Will B. Day, Police Captain William H. Clemens, and Prof. Henry Hartman. The Mozart society, of which Mr. Zulauf has been a leading member, presented him with a set of appropriate resolutions, as well as an honorary membership certificate. This office was gracefully performed by Rev. P. G. W. Metzenthin, of Benwood. A neat address was made by Mayor Sweeney. The affair concluded shortly after midnight.

Criminal Court.

Yesterday in the criminal court, Judge Hugus on the bench, Jacob Nary was released on giving bond in the sum of $100, for his appearance at the next term of court.

"A WORD to the wise is sufficient," and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Perry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by druggists.
